Comment Period for BPA's Post-2011 Review Proposal Ends July 19 -
BPA is seeking public review and comment on the Proposed Revisions to the BPA Energy Efficiency Post-2011 Implementation Program (Proposed Revisions). The comment period closes July 19, 2014. The proposal is closely based on workgroup recommendations. After considering the public comments, BPA will make a final decision, update the Implementation Program, and prepare for the implementation of the changes, including updating the Implementation Manual.

BPA produced a Frequently Asked Questions document to clarify details of the Proposed Revisions to the BPA Energy Efficiency Post-2011 Implementation Program for customers and stakeholders during the public comment period. The document can be found here.
