Retail Sales Allocation Methodology – Thursday, April 12th -

During the past decade appliance and lighting rebates and retail markdown promotions have played a significant role for utility energy efficiency programs in the Pacific Northwest. As baselines rise and achievable savings decrease, utilities are looking for ways to reduce costs of program delivery while still maintaining a high ROI for efficiency investments. Additionally, as more utilities engage in retail programs, there may be a need to ensure that savings are properly and transparently allocated... More

Submit your nomination for the Award for Excellence in Energy Efficiency by April 6th -

Time is running out to nominate your efficiency program for the BPA Award for Excellence in Energy Efficiency.

At the 2012 Energy Efficiency Utility Summit, BPA will recognize the energy efficiency program of one of our customers with the Award for Excellence in Energy Efficiency. This award will recognize the overall creativity in program design and implementation, comparative achievement, and inspiration to others, and we would like to invite you to submit a nomination. Details on the criteria that will be used to select the winner and the format for nominations can be found at the Award for Excellence in Energy Efficiency web page. Nominations will only be accepted through April 6th.
