Events

Time is running out for Efficiency Exchange early bird registration

Join your industry peers from across the Northwest May 2-3 for two days packed with insightful and inspirational dialogue, networking and connection. Take a look at the program agenda and see why this is one event you won't want to miss. Our hotel room block at the Eastlund Hotel and the Doubletree by Hilton is filling up quickly, so make your hotel reservations soon and before the discounted room block rates expire. You can find more information on registration, hotels and agenda here.

After a day of connecting with your peers, join Evergreen Efficiency at the Tuesday night reception! Enjoy beverages, light hors d'oeuvres, a 360° photo booth, and in-person networking time with your favorite EFX professionals! Be sure to stop at the Evergreen table during the reception to vote for your favorite community give-back organization, leading to a donation by Evergreen.

Join Comfort Ready Home for a pre-conference event

One day before EFX23, Comfort Ready Home is hosting a fun, educational and free Training Opportunities Expo! Registration for Efficiency Exchange is not required for this event...More
