

COPY OF SEPTEMBER 19, 2001 E-MAIL FROM BUD KROGH WITH CONFIRMATION AND AGENDA FOR SEPTEMBER 21, 2001 RRG MEETING

Hello, Everyone -

This confirms the meeting of the RTO West Regional Representatives Group (RRG) for this coming Friday, September 21, at the Shilo Inn, 11707 NE Airport Way, in the Rainier and Mt. Hood rooms beginning at 10:00 a.m. and ending by 3:30 p.m. A continental breakfast will be served starting at 9:00 a.m. for those who would like to arrive early, and a buffet lunch will be served at noon. The Shilo Inn is located about two miles east of the Portland airport and van service is available. As I mentioned in my previous notice, we are starting later for this RRG meeting because of the additional travel time some people might need.

Since my notice of last week, some RRG participants have voiced serious concerns regarding activities that they perceive as contrary to the collaborative process. As you know, one of the purposes of RRG meetings is to openly discuss and seek consensus on the development process as well as on the substantive issues that arise. Accordingly, we will set aside time on Friday for a discussion of these concerns.

1. Introduction and Schedule for RTO West Filings on December 1, 2001 and March 1, 2002

2. Discussion of Collaborative Process - Linc Wolverton, Steve Walton, et al
3. Further Feedback on TransConnect filing - Richard Goddard

Kristi Wallis
6. Planning and Expansion Briefing - Kristi Wallis
7. Market Monitoring Report - Kristi Wallis

- Bud
