

Aug. 26, 2005

The best thing for the northwest rate payers is for BPA to select TIG and maintain the present transmission system. This will keep local control and decision making with the least cost to the rate payers.