

10/19/05

As homeowners who will be affected by the proposed rebuild, we request that our comments be carefully considered. My husband & I have grave concerns about some of the possible options. We feel that the only viable option is the " Quartz Creek" route. Other options would devalue property and be very detrimental to those along the rebuild route. We anticipate hearing of your decision-