Dear Annie:

Thank you for responding to my telephone message with your telephone message. Based upon your estimate that my request should not take more than two hours to process, I am not willing to pay for any additional time. As stated in your letter, I do expect to pay $.05 per page for copy expenses.

As requested in your letter of June 25, 2004, attached is my original request. When my request is processed, I would appreciate receiving the information up to the current date of processing.

Sincerely,

Don Carbonari
