

Conservation Potential Assessment Workshop

Monday, September 8, 2008
Portland State Office Building
800 NE Oregon St., Room 1-B (1/2 block west of BPA Headquarters)

Digitized Replay Availability: You missed the meeting? Hear replay after 9/8/08 (available for two months) at (877) 471-6581 Access Code: 841947 Voice command directs you to enter the pound sign at the end of the numeric code. This feature has the following options:

- 7 to rewind in 30-second increments
- 8 to pause, and 8 to resume (toggle)
- 9 to fast forward in 30-second increments
- 04 to lower the volume
- 06 to increase the volume

Welcome Josh Warner, BPA (9:00 – 9:05)

Session 1 Conservation Potential Assessments (CPA) – The basics and what is needed to complete an assessment (9:05 – 10:30)

- Broad Overview
- Goals of a Potential Study
- Modeling
- What data are needed?

Presenters: Lauren Gage, BPA; Hossein Haeri, Cadmus; Kevin Smit, EES

Break (10:30 – 10:40)

Session 1, continued (10:40 – 12:00)

- Overview of the Regional Approach
- Brainstorming: How can BPA help utilities complete potential studies efficiently?

Presenter: Tom Eckman, NWPC

Moderator: Josh Warner

Lunch on your own (12:00 – 1:00)

Session 2 Roundtable: CPA Results from Around the Region & Lessons Learned (1:00 – 3:30)

Presenters: Glenn Atwood, SCL; Fred Gordon, ETO; Wes Thomas, McMinnville

Break (3:30 – 3:40)

Session 3 Now you have a CPA – how do you translate it into programs? (3:40 – 4:45)

Presenters: Lauren Gage, BPA; Bob Lorenzen, EWEB; Jill Steiner, Snohomish

Wrap-Up & Next Steps Josh Warner, BPA (4:45 – 5:00)