Nominations now open for the 2022 Leadership in Energy Efficiency Awards!
The Northwest Energy Efficiency Alliance, or NEEA, is accepting nominations for the annual Leadership in Energy Efficiency Awards through Sept. 16. Do you know any teams, programs or individuals demonstrating outstanding leadership in the Northwest that should be nominated for the Leadership in Energy Efficiency Awards.

Exciting changes were made to the 2022 award categories. The Innovation and Collaboration awards are now one category: Innovative Collaboration. This new category highlights the unique ways in which individuals and teams in the Northwest work together to create, use or promote innovative solutions to advance energy efficiency. And a brand-new category this year – the Rising Star Award, recognizing an emerging leader in energy efficiency whose record reflects ongoing and exceptional growth in contribution to the industry. Learn more about the categories and requirements on neea.org.

Ready to nominate? It’s easy. Just go to neea.org, pick the award category, add contact information and a 250–600-word description of why your nominee is deserving by Sept. 16.
