

Albeni Falls Spillway Gates Replacement

This project involves replacing the eleven spillway gates at Albeni Falls Dam to ensure safe and reliable dam operations. The goal is to return all gates to optimal operating condition, which will reduce operational constraints related to power generation and water levels, and improve community relations. This replacement is necessary due to the current condition of the existing gates, which have been in service for a long time and have shown abnormal deterioration.