

Grand Coulee 500kV Substation

The purpose of this project is to provide security enhancement to the Grand Coulee 500kV Substation. The project involves security upgrades and is part of the ongoing critical infrastructure protection program supported by BPA's best security practices, Critical Infrastructure Protection (CIP) strategies, and DOE Design Basis Threat requirements (DBT).