

Taft GIS Replacement

This project focuses on replacing equipment at Taft substation which is situated in a challenging mountainous environment. The existing equipment is no longer supported by its manufacturer. The primary goal is to install the most modern technology available for this type of substation and replace related components, such as relays and station service systems. This project seeks to improve the reliability of the power system and reduce the likelihood of equipment failures outages.