

Bonneville Power Administration – Residential Advanced Power Strip Qualified Products List

Last updated: 10-31-13

Advanced Power Strip Specification: A qualified Advanced Power Strip must be InfraRed (IR) sensing, consume less than 1W of energy, have a one-year warranty, provide a warranty for connected devices and surge protection to 740 joules, be UL1449 listed, be rated for 15 amps and have a resettable circuit breaker.

Manufacturer	Product Name	Product Details	Website	How to acquire
Embertec	Embertec Emberplug™ AV	Shuts down audio video devices when not in use. Saves both standby and active power.	http://embertec.com/	Contractor and utility sales contact: - Carl Uthe carl@embertec.com Consumer sales: www.embertec.com , or www.techniart.com
 TrickleStar	7 Outlet Advanced PowerStrip Plus 188LV-US-7XX	The Advanced Powerstrip+ product (APS+) with InfraRed (IR) Sensor provides premium quality surge protection and reduces the amount of standby power + active on power used by electronics. The product supports standard master / slave functionality and a countdown timer if no IR activity is detected for 1 hour.	www.TrickleStar.com	Multiple sources of distribution: - Web store online - Direct from manufacturer by contacting Jon.Lanning@TrickleStar.com or calling 888-700-1098 - Energy Federation (EFI) at www.EFI.org or 800-379-4121

