

Take better showers: Install high-performance showerheads.

Aerators and high-performance showerheads not only save water, they save on the cost of heating water. Less water used is less water to heat.