Subject: FOIA

When I opened the FOIA inbox this morning there were two requests dated from last Friday. I check the box every morning and afternoon, can you please figure out what is causing the delay?

Also the requests are not printing with the complete request again. The box with the description of what they want is cut off. I've been copying and pasting into a word document, but it would be better if the box were expanded to capture all of the request.

Thanks for your help.
