In reply refer to: FOIA #BPA-2014-01482-F

David Jenkins
Ex 6

Mr. Jenkins:

This is a final response to your request for Bonneville Power Administration (BPA) records under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552. Your request was received in our office on July 24, 2014, with an acknowledgement letter sent to you on July 31, 2014. In that letter we requested that you address fees relating to your request.

In an email dated July 31, 2014, you responded with a request for a waiver of fees. That request is granted. There are no fees related to your FOIA request.

You also narrowed your request to:

“...the exact physical locations of all power (sub) stations that were operational prior to 1977 in Central Oregon that BPA may have directly or indirectly supplied power to prior to this year. This area includes the areas of: Terrebonne, Redmond, and Bend, Oregon.”

Response:

The records of the Asset Management were searched and the following information was provided: Grizzly and Redmond Substations, and Sand Springs Compensation Station were energized prior to 1977.

The location can be identified by the Longitude and Latitude coordinates and by the PLSS (Public Land Survey System) Oregon, Township, Range and Section

	District	Status Desc	Energize Date according to Station Log Books	Long (DD)	Lat (DD)	PLSS
Grizzly	Redmond	Energized	Sep-67	-121.020652	44.482208	ORT12SR14ESEC35
Redmond	Redmond	Energized	Nov-52	-121.211021	44.270279	ORT15SR13ESEC18
Sand Springs	Redmond	Energized	Sep-68	-120.853725	43.720424	ORT21SR15ESEC25

Appeal:

You may still seek administrative appeal pursuant to Department of Energy FOIA regulations at 10 C.F.R. § 1004.8 if you feel the search was not adequate. If you choose to appeal, you must do so in writing within 30 days, and include the following information:

- (1) The nature of your appeal - denial of records, partial denial of records, adequacy of search, or denial of fee waiver;
- (2) Any legal authorities relied upon to support the appeal; and
- (3) A copy of this determination letter.

Clearly mark both your letter and envelope with the words "FOIA Appeal," and direct it to the following address:
