Maryll, I believe we spoke last week. I apologize for the inconvenience. An email request would work. Requests just have to be in writing and address the following:

Type of Requester – an individual, an educational or noncommercial scientific institution, a corporation, or news media.

Fees – request a waiver, agree to pay all fees, or agree to pay a specific amount. If you request a waiver you will need to address these factors:

The subject of the request: Whether the subject of the requested records concerns, "the operations or activities of the government."

The informative value of the information to be disclosed: Whether the disclosure is, "likely to contribute," to an understanding of government operations or activities.

The contribution to an understanding by the general public of the subject likely to result from disclosure, taking into account your ability and intent to disseminate the information to the public in a form that can further understanding of the subject matter.

The significance of the contribution to public understanding: Whether the disclosure is likely to contribute "significantly" to public understanding of government operations or activities.

The existence and magnitude of a commercial interest: Whether the requester has a commercial interest that would be furthered by the requested disclosure, and, if so.

The primary interest in disclosure: Whether the magnitude of the identified commercial interest of the requester is significantly large, in comparison with the public interest in disclosure, that disclosure is, "primarily in the commercial interest of the requester."

If my request for a waiver or reduction in fees is denied, I agree to pay up to $ to process my request

Also, please provide your current contact information (mailing address, phone, and email).

Good morning,

I have been trying to submit a public records request on your website form for about a week, and I am not able to submit the form. I keep getting this error message:

The form cannot be submitted to the Web server either because your computer is offline or because the host server is currently unavailable. If this problem persists, contact your network administrator.

I have tried in Chrome and Internet Explorer and I get the same error message each time. Is there any way I could submit the public records request via email?

Thank you,

Maryll Kersting
