Ms. Winn,

So sorry for the late response. At this point my colleagues and I only need the following information:

Documents that show how much BPA pays JC-Biomethane for its energy.

If we could just get a single document that shows what the going rate that BPA pays for JCB's energy, that would be great. To be clear, my request in the previous email is now void. This is all that we would like to see at this point.

Thank you,

Wes Franco

Sir, As I mentioned in a voicemail left earlier today, the Department of Energy has transferred your recent request for information to the Bonneville Power Administration. However, before I can begin processing your request I need to clarify the phrase “ and anything else that would indicate the reason for their back taxes.”

Your request for information has been placed on hold for clarification and fees until I hear from you.

Thank you for your quick attention to this matter.

--Reasonably Describe Records--

Description: In Junction City, Oregon, there is a company that produces energy via biogas. The company is called JC-BIOMETHANE, LLC. They receive subsidies from the government and are very behind on their property taxes. I would like to see any files that you have pertaining to who/what organization gives money to JCB, where their funds are going to, how much energy they've been producing, and anything else that would indicate the reason for their back taxes.
