Based upon our discussions last week, I believe you want the site link to where we keep publically available BPA documents. This is our general public site. <http://www.bpa.gov/Pages/home.aspx>

If you need more specific links for our agency site, there are the following Here is a link to just our official publications site which would include the FOIA documents referenced below

<http://www.bpa.gov/news/pubs/Pages/default.aspx>

BPA does a variety of projects and initiatives and this is the link to that site

<http://www.bpa.gov/Projects/Pages/default.aspx>

Here is the links to our finance and rate making site <http://www.bpa.gov/Finance/Pages/default.aspx>

Here is our public involvement and outreach site

<http://www.bpa.gov/PublicInvolvement/Pages/default.aspx>

Here is our "how to do business" with BPA site

<http://www.bpa.gov/Doing%20Business/Pages/default.aspx>

People would still have to choose what kinds of documents they would want at these links but it is fairly self-evident. If you need further specific links, just let me know.

Good morning Shonda,

Sorry for the delaying in getting back to you. I don't think Christy forwarded it on.

At first look he's asking for all of our releases under the FOIA. They can be found on our website at: <http://www.bpa.gov/news/FOIA/library/Pages/default.aspx>.

We also send them to you for the FOIA portal.

Do we need to do anything else? Let me know. Thanks. Kim

Shonda,

Christy is no longer the FOIA officer at BPA. It is Christopher Frost. I think Kim Winn is on vacation.
